DECISION TO-DAY IN GOMPERS CASE

All the Justices Will Sit with Judge Wright.

LIGHT SEVENTH STREET. Merchants Agree to Bear Their

Share of Expense. Plans for raising funds to provide ndle power incandescent lights at intervals of sixty-six feet along both sides f Seventh street between New York and masylvania avenues were completed at meeting of merchants of that section a meeting of merchants of that section in the Chamber of Commerce rooms yea-terday. All were enthusiastic over the project, which was presented in detail by Isaac Gaus, the chairman, and all agreed to pay their pro rata share for the added illumination. The expense will amount to $25.99 a year, to be shared by the merchants, according to the amount of store frontage.

The deciaion in the Gompers contempt case will be announced by Justice Wright of the District Supreme Court, this morning. It is contembed by the accused labor leaders—Gompers, Mitchell, and Morrison—that they should receive the beheift of the statute of limitations on the theory that contempt of court is a criminal charge, and that more than three years has elapsed since the commission of the alleged diaregard of the injunction of the court granted in December, 1907, in favor of the Buck Store and Range Company, of St. Louis.

If the court refuses to dismiss the proceedings, there will be heard a motion on behalf of the "committee of prosecutors" to name an examiner of the testimony.

Chief Justice Clabaugh and Associate Justices Barnard, Anderson, Gould, and Stafford will sit with Justice Wright this morning when the latter announces his decision.

Federation Protests Against Smoot Bill.

DANGERS POINTED OUT

Union labor officials received word yesterday that the convention of the American Federation of Labor at Atlanta had protested against the bill which Senator Smoot, of Utah, has prepared and which, if passed, will substitute power for hand presses in the printing of the government's money,

A LURE TO COUNTERFEITERS. Contending that the printing of money

Contending that the printing of money on power presses would, "for the sake of false economy, eliminate the high art features of engravers" and printers crafts" and would "oreate conditions of reckless and widespread counterfeiting," such as prevailed during the days of the "wild cat currency," the members of the federation averred that the Smoot bill would cause hardship to farmers and the "plain people" in agricultural communities.

The resolution in part follows:

The resolution in part follows:

"The American Federation of Labor, in onvention assembled, protests against he repeal of the law of Congress of the high provides that the paper noney, bonds, and checks of the United money, bonds, and checks of the United States shall be manufactured in the highest style of the art by what is known as the hand-roller process. We do not believe in a cheap country, cheapmen, cheap wages, or a currency cheapmen, cheap wages, or a currency cheapmen, chap wages, or a currency cheapment to the danger point of encouraging counterfeiting. In this respect the people have implicit confidence in their government, and our pride and interest alike demand that this confidence shall not be destroyed. The people, in the last analysis, are the government, and their voice, and not that of the selfish and scheming interests, should prevail in this matter of so vast, far-reaching, and vital concern.

Protest Is Urged.

"All bodies affiliated with the Amer-can Federation of Labor are hereby urged to make immediate and strong protest against the repeal or modification of the law herelnbefore referred to, such protests to be sent to the Senators and Representatives of the States and Congressional districts wherein the protesting bodies are located."

without any trouble. When he got there he was surprised to find that all the seats had been sold and only admission tickets could be bought. He could not understand why this particular vaudeville house was doing such business in such a season and under such conditions,

Later on he went in to see Mr. HENRY L. WEST, of The Washington Herald, and asked him about the place. Mr. West told him that the manager of the vaudeville house in question makes it a point TO BE PARTICULAR ABOUT THE KIND OF ENTERTAINMENT HE OFFERS TO THE PUBLIC

The entertainment must not only be attractive and full of interest, but IT MUST BE LITERALLY AND ABSOLUTELY CLEAN. No persons are permitted on the stage who use slangy, indecent, or suggestive language. Every show that is put on is first critically analyzed by the manager, AND FEATURES THAT SEEM TO HIM OBJECTIONABLE ARE CUT OUT ALTOGETHER. And it is because of this man's reputation in this respect that HIS HOUSE IS ALWAYS FILLED with a nice class of people. Family parties go there. They are sure of seeing a clean entertainment, and that is always satisfactory
